Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information

This Notice describes how Medical Information about you may be used and disclosed, as well as how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information. We are also required to provide you with this notice of our legal duties and our privacy practices with respect to your health information at any time. We must abide by the terms of this notice while it is in effect, but we reserve the right to change the terms of our privacy notices. If we make a change, it will apply to all of your health information in our files, and we will notify you in writing if/when you come in for treatment.

Uses and Disclosures

Here are some examples of how we might use or disclose your health care information:

1. We may have to disclose your health information to another health care provider, hospital, etc., if it is necessary to refer you to them for the diagnosis, assessment, or treatment of your health condition.
2. We may have to disclose your examination, treatment and billing records to another party (i.e. your insurance company), if they are potentially responsible for the payment of your services.
3. We may need to use information in your file for quality control or administrative purposes to run our practices.
4. We may use your name, address, phone number, and your clinical records to contact you to provide appointment reminders, information about treatment alternatives, or other health related information that may be of interest to you (i.e. test results, special promotions, referral information, etc.). 164.520(b)(1)(iii)(A). If you are not at home a message will either be left on your answering machine, left with a family member and/or mailed to your home.

You have the right to refuse to give us an authorization to contact you regarding your care at this office, or to limit uses and disclosure of your health information. If you do not give us authorization, it will not affect the treatment we provide to you or the methods we use to obtain reimbursement for your care (including billing you by mail or collection proceedings). You cannot refuse to receive monthly statements or billings, nor can you limit the access to your insurance company if they are responsible for payment. You may inspect or copy the information that we use to contact you regarding your care at any time.

Permitted Uses and Disclosures Without Your Consent or Authorization

Under federal law, we are also permitted or required to use or disclose your health information without your consent or authorization in the following circumstances:

1. We are providing health care services to you based on the orders (referral) of another health care provider.
2. We provide health care services to you in an emergency and we are unable to obtain your consent after attempting to do so.
3. If there are substantial barriers to communicating with you, but in our professional judgment we believe that you intend for us to provide care.

Your Right to Limit Uses and/or Disclosures

You have the right to request that we do not disclose your health information to specific individuals, companies, or organizations. Any restriction should be requested in writing. We are not required to honor these requests. However, if we agree with your restrictions, the restriction is binding on us.

Revoking Your Authorization

You may revoke your authorization to us at any time in writing. There are two (2) circumstances under which we will not be able to honor your revocation request:

1. If we have already released your health information before we receive your request to revoke your authorization. 164.508(b)(5)(I)
2. If you were required to give your authorization as a condition of obtaining insurance, the insurance company may have a right to your health information if they decide to contest any of your claims.
